Spring International - Grafham Water - 10th May 2019

Scotland Team sponsored by: 7plus7 Construction, Lake of Menteith, Fishers, Angus Angling, The Cornerstone, Hoist and Access Services Ltd, M McKenzie Skip Hire, Jewson, Magnet Trade, Advance Construction and St Andrews Timber & Building Supplies.

Match day at Grafham was fished in bright conditions with an occasional light breeze and areas of flat calm. The practice days had been cold with bright days, windy days and days providing a mix of torrential rain and hail. England ran out convincing winners with four of their team in the top ten (Tony Curtis 16 fish - 3rd; Kim Green 16 fish - 4th; John Horsey 13 fish - 5th and Tim Joyce 10 fish - 7th) which went a long way towards their total of 109 trout for 229lbs 2ozs.

Scotland were second with 84 trout for 184lbs 13ozs with their top rod being Keith Renton with 9 fish for 19lbs 13ozs. Keith was 8th overall. This was a good team performance by Scotland with 7 of their team in the top 20. Derek Marklow was 13th with 8 fish; Ronnie Gilbert was 14th with 8 fish; captain Kevin McCabe was 15th with 7 fish; Andrew Barrowman was 17th with 8 fish; Grant Osler was 19th with 7 fish and Stuart McLean was 20th with 7 fish. Captain Kevin McCabe had the heaviest fish of the day that went to the scales at 5lbs 3ozs.

Wales were third with 78 fish for 163lbs 7ozs. Their top rod Alan Banwell took the Brown Bowl with 17 trout for 33lbs 10ozs. Ireland were fourth with 70 fish for 148lbs 15ozs. Ireland's top rod was Nigel Greene with 17 trout for 33lbs 3ozs which put him in second place.

Autumn International - Lake of Menteith, Scotland - 20th September 2019

Scotland Team sponsored by: 7plus7 Construction, Lake of Menteith, Fishers, Angus Angling, The Cornerstone, Hoist and Access Services Ltd, M McKenzie Skip Hire, Jewson, Magnet Trade, Avance Construction and St Andrews Timber & Building Supplies.

Ireland netted 109 fish in the Autumn International at the Lake of Menteith to run out convincing winners. Wales were 5 fish behind in second with 104 with Scotland taking third with 94 and England in fourth with 92.

It was a hard day at the Lake with the competitors having to combat a flat calm and a cloudless sky. Top individual rod and winner of the Brown Bowl was Arden Pollock of Ireland with 15 trout for 32lbs 7ozs. This was Arden's second Brown Bowl having been the joint winner in 2008. Derek Hessett of Scotland was second with 14 trout for 31lbs 11.5ozs. Mike Williams of Wales was third with 14 trout for 28lbs 7.3ozs and Mark Stephen of Scotland was fourth with 11 trout for 26lbs 2.2ozs.

The heaviest fish of the day was caught by Neill Barrett of Scotland and went to the scales at 4lbs 9.4ozs.
